

Legitimate Interest Assessment – Great Glen U3A Membership

This legitimate interest assessment has been compiled in order to set out the reasons why Great Glen U3A processes membership information.

Purpose Test

Great Glen U3A requests personal data in order to be able to register individuals for membership of Great Glen U3A. The personal data provided will also be used to communicate with members regarding the activities of Great Glen U3A and to keep members informed regarding any groups or activities that they undertake with Great Glen U3A. Member information is shared with a third-party processor for the supply of the Trust publication – Third Age Matters (TAM). Each member has a choice as to whether they opt to receive this publication. Other than this Great Glen U3A does not share membership information outside of the U3A. Membership information is securely held and access is restricted to those who need to process data for membership purposes. Storage and processing of membership data is done in line with GDPR and safeguarding requirements. Great Glen U3A operates with a data protection policy and privacy statement and has sought advice from the Third Age Trust in developing guidance in respect of our practice in relation to data protection.

Necessity Test

Great Glen U3A requests minimal information from potential members which includes personal details and contact details. This information is proportionate to the requirements of the U3A fulfilling its responsibilities in relation to being able to communicate effectively with its membership. Great Glen U3A would not be able to register members or process applications without the provision of a certain amount of membership information. Great Glen U3A has a duty of care to its membership and needs to retain a certain amount of personal information in order to know who its members are, and which members are paid up members of the U3A. This is necessary for meeting the requirements of the insurance provision for U3A members.

Balancing Test

The personal data requested is that which is needed for registering and processing individuals as members of Great Glen U3A. The data requested is minimal personal data and that which is needed for communicating with members... All the data gathered is from individuals who provide the information as part of their application to join Great Glen U3A. Membership of Great Glen U3A must be renewed each year at which time members have the option as to whether they wish to renew as well as having the opportunity to update their personal information. The reasons for collecting personal information is explained to potential members at the point of joining. A copy of Great Glen U3A's privacy statement is available to all members who wish to have further details about how their information is used and who it is shared with. Members who are unhappy about their data being shared with third party processors can opt out of receiving those publications for which a processor is used. Great Glen U3A holds information securely and it will only be accessed by those who need to see it. Membership data will not be processed for any purpose other than in connection with an individual's membership. Communications sent will be relevant and targeted to the individual's membership activities. U3A members will not be sent marketing materials or information that does not relate to Great Glen U3A.
