Chairman's Chat

Hello everyone

We Brits talk a lot about the weather but I'm extremely grateful for the mild conditions this winter. Sue and I are driving regularly to Great Glen from Uppingham and the road conditions (and the scenery en route) couldn't be better for the time of year.

So now it's the time when we start our membership renewals. You'll all be receiving your renewal forms this month. I hope that you feel your membership is worthwhile and will join us for another year. Can I stress the importance of ticking the box to continue receive the Third Age magazine. We are now legally obliged to ask this question as the distribution is handled by a separate company. See Sue's piece later in this newsletter.

It's good news on the committee recruitment front. We have a volunteer to take over as newsletter editor from Robert, namely Lynda Williams, who will work alongside Robert before talking over after the AGM. Thank you, Lynda. Of course, any member can be nominated to become part of our committee and if that appeals to you see the item later in this newsletter for details.

And to end, we are looking for more ideas for our one-off Learn Something New sessions. If you have suggestions whether for something crafty or technical or just plain interesting, then contact Sue Russell or me and we'll see what can be done.

Make the most of your U3A membership in 2019.

Best wishes.

Committee News

Interested in Joining the Committee?

Great Glen U3A would have to cease its existence if it had no Trustee Committee. We have been successful in finding volunteers recently, but some of our existing members are stepping down at the next AGM, and we should be pleased to recruit more now. All you need to do in the first instance is to return a completed nomination form to the Chairman (or any Committee member). Forms are available on the website, at the Reception Desk for monthly meetings and at the Methodist Hall. The next step would be an exploratory chat about what is involved and how you could best contribute.

Membership Renewals

First, thank you to everyone who volunteered to help with the distribution of letters. Many hands (or feet!) make light work and your offers of help are appreciated. You will be receiving your letter and Renewal Form in the next week or so, reminding you that your membership subscription is due soon. The letter gives full details of how and when you can pay your subscription.

Changes to Data Protection rules mean that in order to receive the Third Age Matters Magazine YOU MUST SELECT THE CHECKBOX ON THE FORM GIVING YOUR PERMISSION TO SHARE YOUR ADDRESS AND RETURN YOUR RENEWAL FORM with your payment. If we don't have your signed permission, we cannot arrange for you to continue to receive the magazine, which is included in a full subscription.

Last year our membership responded so well to appeals to pay by bank transfer or cash, rather than by cheque, that we avoided excess bank charges. We are hoping to do as well this year. You can pay in person at the Monthly Meeting in February, March or April or at the Methodist Hall 10.00 to 12 noon on Tuesday 26th February or 2.00 to 4.00 p.m. on Thursday 21st March. (If you prefer, you can deliver your renewal form and payment by hand to Janet Fanko, 6 Wych Elm Close, Great Glen, LE8 9GY.) Thank you for supporting our U3A and I hope you will continue to do so.

Tribute to Les Dawson (January meeting)

It came as an unwelcome surprise to hear that Mike Leonard had decided to retire from the speaker circuit and that his Tribute to Les Dawson was to be his final talk to Great Glen U3A. Mike went out on a high. Having seen little of Les Dawson as a comic and knowing almost nothing about him, I confess to awaiting this event without great enthusiasm. We were however treated to an astonishing and empathetic account beginning with an early life without apparent promise, rather a blundering litany of failures and misfortunes. But Les Dawson was a man of character and pluck who, having found his metier as a comic, was able to draw upon his varied and somewhat chaotic experiences to become a giant in that world. Whatever our prior sentiments, I am sure we all ended up wondering at his spirit and impressed by his ultimate great success.

English Country Dancing

The Group is thriving with regular attendances in the high teens to low twenties which means we can try a good variety of dances. In late January, with a record attendance of 24, we finally managed to dance a Sicilian Circle - an ambition of the Group Leader since the group started over three years ago!

On 12th February the Group will be holding its belated "Xmas Lunch" at The Yews hostelry, before our normal dancing - hopefully a glass of wine won't affect too much our distinction of "right" from "left"!

Several members enjoyed a Burns Night Ceilidh at St Peter's Centre in Oadby on 26th January: the evening featured a Haggis supper, Pipe music and the Rabbie Burns "Ode to the Haggis" before most of the 80 plus attendees took to the floor for some Scottish-style dances called by the ECD Group Leader, Peter.

February and March bring several more public dances that group members may choose to attend including the Burton Overy Club's Annual Dance on 9th March when the dance Caller will be the nationally-known Ivan

Aitken supported by the superb band Kelly's Eye – a fun-filled evening is guaranteed! And then on the following day members have a chance to don their Georgian/Regency period finery for a Playford costume Ball at the Bede House in Higham Ferrers, Northamptonshire!

We continue to meet weekly on Tuesday afternoons 1.30 to 3.30 p.m. in the Sports Hall

Swimming

I am holding the fort for David Brooke as he is currently indisposed. No swimming on 20th February as it is half term. Attendance has been in the low twenties so far this year, so there is room for some more swimmers of any standard. It's been cold outside, but it is warm in the pool and showers at the Grammar School. Why not start getting "beach ready" in the pool this month?
